"I love what I do. Watching people leave feeling seen and magical, that's what I'm here for."

HI, I'M TONYA

I've been reading people my whole life. It's a skill that runs in my family, and I trusted it long before I understood it. I put it to work hosting and interviewing, including twelve years on the red carpet at the Sedona International Film Festival. That's where I learned how to make filmmakers and A-listers and everyone else feel at ease. After several years entertaining at Sedona's 5-star luxury resorts, Sedona voted me #1 psychic three years running. That's a bit like being the best chocolate in Belgium.

I moved to Las Vegas because I was ready for a bigger stage. Now I host Mystic Nights, my immersive one-woman residency at Balkan Bar & Grill, and we've oversold shows and added tables and seats to fit everyone. I'm also in the film Underneath the Glittery Moon as Moonbeam Missy, an eccentric, crystal-crunching tarot reader. Small role, big personality. And I'm narrating promos for an upcoming book-to-streaming series that's still under wraps.

THE SHOW

It's an immersive experience: a one-woman show with no script and no repeats. There's no fourth wall, and no one is just watching. I read the room, and the room writes the night. Every person gets something personal, and the group energy is the point. Our crowd favorite is Tarot Bingo, played live during the show with mini prizes. Testimonials: Watch now.
